Mid-Term Physics Assessment 2026

CBSE | Class Class 12 | Physics

Date: 11 October 2026 | Maximum Marks: 19.0 | Total Questions: 5

General Instructions:

- All questions are compulsory unless otherwise stated.
- Read each question carefully before answering.
- Marks for each question are indicated on the right side.
- Write neatly and legibly.

Questions

Q1. How can thermodynamics be applied to a practical problem under normal conditions, from a real-world perspective? [5.0 marks]

Q2. How can fluid mechanics be described in simple terms in a professional environment, from a practical perspective? [4.0 marks]

Q3. State one characteristic of gravitation. in an educational setting, from a problem-solving perspective? [2.0 marks]

Q4. Which factors should be considered when applying waves in a practical scenario, from a problem-solving perspective? [3.0 marks]

Q5. What differences can be observed when applying thermodynamics in an academic context, from a real-world perspective? [5.0 marks]

Total Marks: 19.0 | Questions: 5

Generated by ExamForge AI — Intelligent Assessments, Balanced Question Papers